EXHIBIT OF PAINTINGS AT ART CENTER

Mississippi born, Theora Hamblett is the artist whose paintings will be on display at the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery of the Marion Art Center during the month of August. Through the courtesy of the Betty Parsons gallery in Boston, the Art Center is proud to present Miss Hamblett's work. A Southern lady of many talents, including school teaching and chicken raising, she did not begin her painting career until she had passed the half-century mark. She could be considered a "late bloomer", but bloom she has, and today her art is in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art as well

ACTIVITIES AT NURSING HOME

The patients of the Mattapoissett Nursing Home have had a very busy summer activity schedule under the direction of Mrs. Norman L. Turcotte, Nursing Home Administrator; Mrs. John L. Layport, Activity Director; and their volunteer high school girls: Rose L. Hutchings, Beth L. Roylance, Kathleen A. Perrault and Gail M. Bauer.

With the assistance of these girls the patients have participated in croquet, bowling, walks, birthday parties and church services.

Volunteer drivers, Mrs. Linwood C. Lewis, Mrs. William B. Walkup and Mrs. Winfield Jenney, have provided transportation to the band concerts on the wharf for the music lovers. There was also a full house for the accomplished trio of George Fisher, pianist;

Marion Fernandes and Laureeanne Empey, singing and dancing.

Barbecues are being held every 2 weeks compliments of the Marion-Mattapoissett Kiwanis Club. They have also arranged for some of the Old Rochester student musicians to entertain after their next barbecue on Thursday, August 3rd. All friends, relatives, employees and families are invited and have attended to help make the atmosphere more festive for the patients.

The Nursing Home wishes to express its sincere appreciation to all these volunteer workers and to those throughout the year who have helped make the lives of these "shut-ins" more liveable.

and heavy cruisers. After 5 years in the business world, Mr. Biddle felt called to enter the ministry of the Episcopal priesthood. In 1964 he was graduated with honors from Virginia Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Biddle, the former Phyllis Comber, whom Mr. Biddle married in 1958, is an artist of distinction. The Biddles have five children, all of whom are welcomed back to the Mattapoisett scene most enthusiastically. Mr. Biddle is well remembered for his stirring and provocative presentation of spiritual problems and their handling in his sermons of last summer.

At the organ of St. Philip's, Mrs. Dorothy Cook continues, and Mrs. Carroll Maury has resumed her care of the altar flowers. Information about St. Philip's is available through

Mrs. Kinglsey Jones of Ned's Point Road, Mattapoisett. The Biddles will reside on Mechanic Street. Members of all faiths are invited to participate in the worship twice every Sunday morning at St. Philip's. Holy Communion will be celebrated on August 6th at 8 A.M., and morning prayer and sermon at 10 o'clock. Regular schedule for other Sundays is Holy Communion at 8 and morning prayer and sermon at 10 o'clock.

will feature a traditional New England Saturday night menu -- ham, baked beans, potato salad, brown bread, rolls, coffee and cupcakes for dessert.

As has become a delightful custom, the supper will be followed by square dancing at 8:00 P.M. on the Mattapoisett Town wharf -- or in case of rain, in the parish hall of the church. Dick Davis, a well-known favorite in this area, will be on hand with his orchestra to do the calling for the Dance of the Fifties.

Tickets for the supper may be purchased from any committee member, board member, at Tinkham's Pharmacy in Mattapoisett or even on arrival at the church parish hall. However, it would be greatly appreciated if as many as possible would buy tickets in advance so that the number of persons to be provided for may be estimated.

The chairmen for the various committees are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, host and hostess; Mr. and Mrs. William MacLean, set-up and decoration; Mr. Richard A. Whalon, bus boys; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackburn, tickets; Mr. and Mrs. William Walkup, dish washing and clean-up; Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Whalon, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Atkinson, coffee; Mrs. John Layport, bread; Mrs. Richard A. Whalon, desserts.

A general committee will be working in the kitchen in the afternoon to prepare the food.

curious traveler. It is probably the most elaborately decorated structure in the State. If a man's home is his castle, the king of this domain built a Camelot.

The legend is this. A sea captain who was about to get married was ordered to sea so suddenly that he and his bride were obliged to postpone the wedding indefinitely or get married on the instant. Since the notice was too short to permit a formal big wedding or the baking of a cake, the captain made up the loss to his bride by making her whole house into a wedding cake. The result is the most remarkable scroll saw demonstration on record. The two photos were taken to prove this house, since it defies description. We think perhaps this captain and his bride threw some wing ding parties to make up for the lost wedding ball, because there are 11 hitching posts spaced outside the picket fence.

DIRECTOR OF CEREBRAL PALSY CLINIC SPEAKS TO PARENTS IN MATTAPOISETT

How to handle a Cerebral Palsy child and their limitations were discussed by Mrs. Agnes Raposa, executive director of the Cerebral Palsy Clinic in New Bedford. She spoke to a group of parents and friends of handicapped and retarded children at the recent meeting held at Mattapoisett Inn.

Self-care and independence are very important with these special children to equip them to compete with normal children. They have to be made aware of society and their acceptance in that society. Mrs. Raposa described the various degrees of cerebral palsy and what can be expected of these children. Constant physical therapy is essential to keep the child from reverting back to his original condition.

Formation of the Opportunity Center in 1948 was explained as necessary to hire the older handicapped person. Some are hired in private industry, but many work at the Center making items used in private industry. This employment helps the handicapped retain his dignity.

Mrs. Raposa also stressed that many of the cerebral palsy children were not retarded mentally. The New Bedford clinic is more firm with their discipline than in many other areas. This is why the percentage of emotional difficulties is much lower. The teen-age years with their emotional problems are particularly intense with these handicapped young people.

Miss Mary Phelan, a teacher of a health class in New Bedford for the physically handicapped but mentally normal, said a few words
